Al-Bukhari's Methodoloty in Selecting Al-Zuhri's Narrations In his Book
(Al-Jami' Al-Saheeh) – "Analytical Study"

*Ziad S. Al-Abbadi

ABSTRACT

The scholars of Hadith have agreed that the authors of Prophetic Traditions, such as al-Bukhari, have been selective in their collections of Hadith. However they had different criterions of selecting the narrations. Due to the fact that many of these authors never mentioned their methodology in selecting the traditions, they had to do their own research in order to conclude the authors' methodology.

Among those scholars was Imam Al-Hazimi, who pointed out the issue of selectivity of the authors. He considered two main aspects as a criterion; accuracy and studentship.

In this paper the researcher tries to examine on of the samples of Al-Hazimi on which Imams Ibn Hajar and Ibn Rajab have agreed with him. That is the levels of Al-Zuhri's students.

He mentioned them, their levels, and how close they are foom their sheikh; the researcher is aiming to study the students of Al-zuhri in Al-Bukhari's book, relating their narrations to Al-Zuhri showing the opinion of the scholars of criticism of those students.

The researchers also studies whether al-Bukhari has committed himself to the selection criterion to comprehend the first level and to select from the second
